PREPARE VEDIC MATHEMATICS DICTIONARY

I

To think, meditate, transcend and be blissful

1. Vedic systems and self-referral features and as such these unfold sequentially. As such the students of Vedic systems have to think, meditate and transcend to be blissfully face to face with features, values and virtues of the pure and applied values of the systems. This that way impliedly makes it imperative for the students to prepare their own dictionaries of Vedic Mathematics. This exercise shall be helping the students to visit and revisit their comprehensions and imbibing of the systems.

II

Ganita Sutras Dictionary

2. Ganita Sutras being a complete system as such one shall prepare one's own dictionary of Ganita Sutras. On the one hand, focus here may be upon the working rules and on the other hand the focus here is to be upon the organization format of Ganita Sutras. One shall design compilation of Ganita Sutra's dictionary in one's own way of undertaking the study of Vedic Mathematics of Ganita Sutras as Vedic Mathematics is part of the Discipline of Vedic Mathematics, Science and Technology, as such the advance dictionary of Ganita Sutras, as such shall be including relevant features of the Discipline of Vedic Mathematics, Science and Technology as well. Revised edition of such exercises outcome are bound to be there as like all other Vedic systems, Ganita Sutras as well sequentially unfold from within. It really would be very blissful that one shall visit and revisit one's attempts of compilations and accepting revised entries in their earlier compilations.

III

Indexing Learning Success

3. One may look at their Ganita Sutras Dictionary compilation attempt as regular indexing of one's learning success. It really is going to be a very blissful experience to be face to face with one's indexing of one's learning success.

IV

Let Every Step of the Course Stands Indexed

4. The present course is being planned 'as a sequence of steps'. Let every step of the course be properly indexed about its comprehension and imbibing thereof.
5. The steps of the course are bound to be discrete and impliedly there are bound to be gaps in between, which are to be filled and refilled by the participants themselves by their own explorative studies.
